Appointments

1. Personal Representative. The will should name a personal representative to probate the estate. (Personal representative is also sometimes referred to as executor or administrator.) (e.g., partner as primary personal representative, with a child, relative, friend, or corporate trustee as alternate.)

Personal Representative: _____

Alternate: _____

Second Alternate: _____

2. Successor Trustee. If you choose to avoid probate of your estate by executing a living trust during lifetime, a successor trustee should be named. The successor trustee would be responsible for managing assets if you were unable due to incapacity or death. The successor trustee would distribute assets to beneficiaries after death.

Successor Trustee: _____

Alternate: _____

Second Alternate: _____

3. Health Care Agent. Who should be named to make medical decisions on your behalf including decisions regarding medical consents, life support issues, and nursing home admission if you were unable to make these decisions yourself? It is not necessary to appoint the same person who is your successor trustee or personal representative as your health care agent.

Health Care Agent: _____

Alternate: _____

Second Alternate: _____

Plan of Distribution

1. Specific Gifts. Do you want to make charitable gifts, such as to a house of worship or other institution? Do you wish to make a special gift to a particular person, such as a piece of jewelry to a particular child?

2. Briefly describe the plan of distribution for assets remaining after any specific gifts described above are made. (Don't worry about tax planning or other considerations in answering this question. We'll consider those details later if needed.)

☐ All to domestic partner; if domestic partner does not survive, then to the following beneficiaries who survive: _____.

☐ All to domestic partner; if domestic partner does not survive, then to the following beneficiaries, or if a beneficiary does not survive, to the children of the deceased beneficiary. Beneficiaries are: _____.

☐ As follows: _____

3. Ultimate Distribution. You might want to provide for the distribution of your property if neither you, your partner, nor your children/other beneficiaries named above survive.

Please complete this section only if you have minor beneficiaries or beneficiaries with disabilities.

1. Guardian. If you have child(ren) or other beneficiary(ies) who are minors or who have special needs, you may need to appoint a guardian. The guardian is responsible for the day-to-day care of the child. It is a good idea to name an alternate guardian to act if your first choice cannot serve.

Guardian: _____
Alternate: _____

2. Testamentary Trustee. You may need a trustee to manage assets for beneficiaries until they reach an age when you believe they should be capable of managing assets on their own. A trustee can keep the beneficiary's money invested wisely and use it for their education, support, etc., until they reach the age specified for outright distribution of assets to them. The trustee can be a relative, friend, trust company, or other person or institution you trust to manage and distribute assets according to your wishes. The testamentary trustee can be the same person named as the guardian, or could be a different person or institution.

Testamentary Trustee: _____

Alternate: _____

3. Age of Distribution. If you do establish a trust to allow a third party to manage assets for beneficiaries, then it is necessary for you to decide when the beneficiaries will be mature enough to manage assets on their own. You may want to give each beneficiary his or her share at the time the beneficiary reaches a particular age. You may consider splitting the distribution, such as $\frac{1}{2}$ at age 25 and the balance at age 30, or $\frac{1}{3}$ at 21, $\frac{1}{3}$ at 25, and $\frac{1}{3}$ at 35. You may use any age or combination of ages that you choose.
